In Memoriam:

PAULETTE.- In loving memory of my beloved son, Howard T. Paulette, who departed this life one year ago today, August 19, 1950.

He had a cherry smile, a pleasant way,

A helping hand to all he knew;

He was so kind, so generous, and true.

On earth he nobly did his best.

Grant him, Jesus, heavenly rest.

Oh what would I give to clasp his hand,

His dear, kind face to see!

To hear his voice, to see his smile,

That meant so much to me.

His spirit has fled, his suffering o'er,

At the fireside he will join me no more.

—Mother.

In Memoriam:

In memory of my dear husband and father, Richard H. Baber, who departed this life two years ago, August 24, 1949.

You have taken your last journey,

In a beautiful ship called rest;

Away from this world of sorrow,

In a land of peace and rest.

Dear One, you are not forgotten,

Though on earth you see no more;

Yet in memory you are with us,

As you always were before.

—Sadly missed by his wife and Children, Mrs. R. H. Baber and Family. (1tp)

Saving Bones

A new method of bone preservation, which permits bone to be stored in sterile containers at room temperature has been announced. This procedure is accomplished by freezing bone, which stops the growth of organisms, and then drying it in a vacuum. The method was explained by Capt. F. F. Heuer, of the U. S. Navy Medical Corps, Bethesda, Maryland. This new method, the doctor explained, is another development in the establishment of bone banks. Since the last war, bone banks have been set up in many hospitals throughout the country. The object of a bone bank is to have available a supply of human bone that might be needed in an emergency for grafting. The bone usually comes from human, living patients. If a patient is scheduled to have a leg amputation, he is asked to donate the bone to the bank so that another patient may benefit by it sometime in the future.

Preparation of the bone for storage is done immediately after amputation under sterile conditions. The common practice is to store various lengths of bone in a deep freeze cabinet on the surgical floor of a hospital, close to the operating room.

A BIRTHDAY PARTY

Fifty relatives and friends joined Mrs. John Spencer Rush at her home near Andersonville, August 12, to celebrate her 84th birthday.

As usual, Mrs. Rush met her guests with a lively twinkle in her eyes and a sweet smile on her face, that will not be forgotten by those who most enjoy this annual event, which has taken place at her home since August, 1929. Among those present were her pastor, Rev. Jones, and Mr. and Mrs. T. P. Mehaffey, of Lynchburg, the latter being a first cousin of the honoree, but who had never had the pleasure of visiting her on this occasion.

A bountiful dinner was served on the lawn, after which the honoree was presented an attractive birthday cake, decorated with candles; also many nice and useful gifts.

In the afternoon pictures were taken and ice cream was served, after which the small children enjoyed mostly "sliding down" Uncle Vincent's straw stacks.

A record of these events is kept by Mrs. Leslie R. Williams, 3448 Richmond St., Lynchburg. Sixteen members of the family have passed away and nineteen have entered the services of their country. It is recalled that Walter Williams, a grandson of Mrs. Rush was on the "Meredith," when it was sinking on October 15, 1942, escaping into the water where he was picked up four days later. After this he was shot and badly wounded by the enemy, but survived to tell the tale and is still serving Uncle Sam in the Navy.

Walter was one of the group to enjoy grandmother's birthday celebration.

Spring Mills

Spring Mills, August 22.- Mrs. Mary Jennings Wickizer, of Los Angeles, Calif.; Mrs. Janie Davis, of Newport News; Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Wingfield and little granddaughter, Mary Alice Wingfield, of Lynchburg were visitors in the home of their aunt, Mrs. Carrie Ford Monday and Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Lyle Lee and children visited Mr. and Mrs. S. T. Ford in Richmond.

Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Owen, who recently moved to Lynchburg visited in the home of their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. James Ford last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Russell Joy and daughter, Betty Ann, of Arlington, spent the week-end with his mother, Mrs. Bessie Foster.

Elmo Reuter has returned from the hospital, but will have to go back for further treatment.
